BELL ISLAND GIVES ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME TO PREMIER A. E. HICKMAN

Hearty Welcome Is Accorded Leader of Liberal Government — Premier States His Own District Will Return Three Liberal Candidates.

(Special to The Advocate)

BELL ISLAND, May 30th.—Prime Minister Hickman came to Bell Island yesterday, and never in the history of the Iron Isle was a Prime Minister accorded a heartier or more whole-souled welcome.

The visit of the new Premier was doubly appreciated, because the people knew full well he was engaged campaigning in the district of Hr. Grace.

Last night a meeting was held in the L. O. A. Hall. Standing room was at a premium and the enthusiasm that prevailed throughout knew no bounds. The meeting was under the Chairmanship of Mr. Reid, who introduced the new Prime Minister amid hearty cheers that made the rafters ring.

In a free, frank and fearless manner Premier Hickman told of the progressive policy of the Liberal Party. There were repeated outbursts of applause as Premier Hickman showed how the Liberal Policy meant better pay, better conditions and better times for the workingman.

He advised all present to fall in line with the rest of the country and support the Liberal Party. Hr. Grace, the district he was contesting, was a sure win for Hickman, Archibald and Calpin. Consequently, he urged his hearers to be on the winning side this time by voting the straight ticket for Emerson, Ryan and Caul.

(LIBERAL).

Campaign Comments

Cyril Cahill must be having an exciting time driving the war horse around Hr. Main.

Crosbie has his henchmen out betting that he will be elected in St. John's West. Nothing at all about Linegar and young Brown.

The news of Cashin's liquor grab of the paltry little sum of $30,000 was received in the outport districts with such amazement that the Tory candidates demanded the suppression of such information. Strange how eager these same candidates were to spread the news when charges were made against others.

Nobody ever thought for a moment that Bay de Verde could swallow Cramm and Puddester as a mixture. They simply went go down and so Goobie's election is certain as well as Cave's.

Liberal Candidate Takes St. Anthony By Storm

Mr. J. H. Scammell Secures Support of Electors With Convincing Exposition of Liberal Policy To Great Gathering of People.

(Special to The Advocate)

ST. ANTHONY, May 30.—Mr. J. H. Scammell stormed this supposed stronghold of Moore's last night and in one of the ablest speeches ever heard here outlined the political situation before the country today and the issues before the electorate. He gave an able exposition of the Liberal Parties Policy.

The meeting took place in the spacious new school room and a capacity crowd turned out for the occasion. Pomeroy, Moore's agent, tried to butt in, but was promptly put in his place. After Mr. Scammell had finished, Pomeroy got off some old twaddle and made himself ridiculous and made everyone laugh. He abused Hickman, and after being told by Mr. Scammell that it was a case of sour grapes he finally collapsed, the audience roaring in laughter.

The meeting closed with rousing cheers for Scammell, and if Moore thinks he has St. Anthony in his vest pocket there is another guess coming to him. Scammell will poll twice as many votes here as he did last spring.

CORRESPONDENT.

MEETING SPLENDID SUCCESS.

(Special to The Advocate)

ST. ANTHONY, May 30.—Mr. Scammell's meeting here last night was a splendid success, and he will poll twice as many votes in this vicinity as last year. We will send Scammell back to the House of Assembly because St. Barbe wants no treachery.

The meeting closed with rousing cheers for Scammell and the Liberal Party.—FRED W. OLLERHEAD, DUDLEY JOHNSON, J. E. THOMS, W. T. BOYD, J. BOYD, W. FENNISMORE, ALBERT E. TUCKER, FRED. ROBERTS.

CHAPTER XIV.

"I bet I'll shut him up," declared Stone. "What more did the fool say?" "Stone, hev you been round these parts for any considerable time?" queried Brackton.

"Yes, I have—several weeks out there, and about ten days or so around the Ford."

"Where was you the night of the flood?"

The shrewd scrutiny and suspicion angered Stone.

"It's any of your mix, I was out on the slope among the rocks. I heard the flood comin' down long before it got here," replied Stone, deliberately.

Brackton averted his gaze, and abruptly rose as if the occasion was ended. "Wal, take my hunch, an' leave," he said, turning away.

"Brackton, if you mean well, I'm much obliged," returned Stone, coolly. "But I'll not take the hunch."

"Suit yourself," added Brackton, and he went away.

"I'll be darned!" muttered Stone. "Funny old man. Maybe Creech's not the only loony one herabouts."

Stone decided to walk down to the village after supper, and would have done so, but for the fact that he saw a man climbing his path. When he recognized the rider Holley he sensed trouble, and straightaway he became gloomy.

"Howdy, son!" was the rider's remark. "Sure makes me—puff—to climb up this mountain."

Stone turned instantly, surprised at the friendly tone, doubting his own ears, and waiting to verify them. He was the more surprised to see Holley unmistakably amiable.

"Hello, Holley! How are you?" he replied. "Have a seat."

"Wal, I'm spy fer an' old bird."

They sat down on the porch step. What could Holley want with him? This old rider was above curiosity or gossip.

"Stone, you ain't holdin' it ag'in me—that I tried to shut you up the other day?" he drawled, with dry frankness.

"Why, no, Holley, I'm not. I saw your point. You were right. But Bos till made me mad."

"Sure! He'd make anybody mad. I've seen riders bite themselves, they was so mad at Bostil. You called him an' you sure tickled the boys. But you hurt yourself, fer Bostil owns an runs this here Ford."

"So I've discovered," replied Stone. "You got yourself in bad right off, fer Bostil has turned the riders ag'in you, an' this here punchin' of Joel Creech has turned the village folks ag'in you. What'd you pitch into him fer?"

Stone caught the kindly interest and intent of the rider, and it warmed him as Brackton's disapproval had alienated him.

"Wal, I reckon I'd better tell you," drawled Holley, as Stone hesitated. "Thee Lucys wants to know if you beat up Joel an' why you did."

"Holley! Did she ask you to find out?"

"She sure did. The girl's worried these days, Stone. . . . You see, you haven't been around, an' you don't know what's comin' off."

"Brackton was here to-day an' he told me a good deal. I'm worried, too," said Stone, dejectedly.

"That boss of yours, Wildfire, he's enough to make you hated in Bostil's camp, even if you hadn't made a fool of yourself, which you sure have."

Stone dropped his head as admission.

"What Creech swears he seen you do to Miss Lucy, out there among the rocks, where you was hid with Wildfire—is there any truth in that?" asked Holley, earnestly. "Tell me, Stone. Folks believe it. An' it's hurt you at the Ford. Bostil ain't heard it yet, an' Lucy she doesn't know. But I'm figgerin' that you punched Joel because he throwed it in your face."

"He did, and I lambasted him."

"You did right. But what I want to know, it is true what Joel seen?"

"It's true, Holley. But what I did isn't so bad—so bad as he'd make it look."

"Wal, I knowed that. I knowed fer a long time how Lucy cares fer you," returned the old rider, kindly.

"Holley, you can't be serious."

"Wal, I am. I've been sort of a big brother to Lucy since she weighed no more'n my spurs. I know her better'n anybody. An' lately she's been different. She's worried an' unhappy."

"But Holley, all that doesn't seem to—"

"I reckon not. I think she cares for you, and I'm your friend, Stone. You're goin' to buck up against some hell round here sooner or later. An' you'll need a friend."

"Thanks—Holley," replied Stone, unsteadily. He thrilled under the iron grasp of the rider's hand.

"You've got another friend you can gamble on," said Holley significantly.

"Another! Who?"

"Lucy Bostil. An' don't you forget that. I'll bet she'll raise more trouble than Bostil when she hears what Joel Creech is tellin' Van Sickle swears he's a-goin' to tell her an' then beat you up with a quirt."

He is, is he?" snapped Stone darkly

When Holley left, Stone became a prey to deep thoughts at once anxious and dreamy.

Holley had promised to come again soon, but it would have to be after dark.

Three days passed, and there was no sign of Holley. On the fourth day Stone found he needed supplies that he must obtain from the store. He did not forget Holley's warning, but he disregarded it, thinking there scarcely would be a chance of meeting Bostil at midday.

There were horses standing, bridled down, before Brackton's place, and riders lounging at the rail and step. Some of these men had been pleasant to Stone on earlier occasions. This day they seemed not to see him. Stone was tingling all over when he went into the store. Some devilry was afoot! He had an angry thought that these riders would not have minds of their own.

Presently Brackton was at leisure, but he showed no disposition to attend to Stone's wants. Then Stone walked up to the counter and asked for supplies.

"Have you got the money?" asked Brackton, as if addressing one he would not trust.

"Yes," replied Stone, growing red under an insult that he knew Wetherby had heard.

Brackton handed out the supplies and received the money without a word. He held his head down. It was a singular action for a man used to dealing fairly with every one. Stone felt outraged. He hurried out of the place, with shame burning him, and in his hurry he bumped into a burly form. Stone recoiled—looked up. Bostil! The old rider was eyeing him with cool speculation.

"Wal, are you drunk?" he queried, without any particular expression.

Yet the query was to Stone like a blow. It brought his head up with a jerk, his glance steady and keen on Bostil's.

"Bostil, you know I don't drink," he said.

"I know a lot about you, Stone. . . . I heard you bought Vorhse's place, up on the bench."

"Yes."

"Did he tell you it was mortgaged to me for more'n it's worth?"

"No, he didn't."

"Did he make over any papers to you?"

"No."

"Wal, if it interests you I'll show you papers that proves the property mine."

Stone suffered a little pang. The lit le home had grown dear to him.

"All right, Bostil. If it's yours—it's yours," he said calmly.

"I reckon I'd drove you out before this if I hadn't felt we could make a deal."

"We can't agree on any deal, Bostil," replied Stone, steadily, and made as if to pass him.

The big hand that forced Stone back was far from gentle, and again he felt the quick rush of blood.

"Mebbe I can tell you somethin' the'll make you sell Wildfire," said Bostil.

"Not if you talked yourself dumb!" flashed Stone. There was no use to try to keep cool with this Bostil, if he talked horses, I'll race Wildfire against the King. But no more."

"Race! Wal, we don't run races around here without stakes," replied Bostil, with deep scorn. "An' what can you bet? You brag of racin' with me, an' you a beggarly rider!"

The riders behind Bostil laughed. Wetherby's face was there in the door, not amused, but hard with scorn and something else. Stone felt a sickening, terrible passion.

"Yes, Bostil, I'm what you say," responded Stone, when the passion had subsided somewhat. "But you're lead wrong when you say I've nothin' to bet on a race."

"An' what'll you bet?"

"My life an' my horse!"

The riders suddenly grew silent and intense. Bostil vibrated to that. He turned white. He more than any rider on the uplands must have felt the nature of that offer.

"Agin what?" he demanded hoarsely.

"Your daughter Lucy!"

One instant the surprise held Bostil mute and motionless. Then he seemed to expand. His huge bulk leaped into motion and he bellowed like a mad bull.

Stone saw the blow coming, made no move to avoid it. The big fist took him square on the mouth and chin and laid him flat on the ground. Sight failed Stone for a little and like wise ability to move. But he did not lose consciousness. He could have killed Bostil, and he knew it. But Bostil was Lucy's father!

Stone gathered up the packages, and without looking at the men he hurried away. He seemed possessed of a fury to turn and run back. Some force, like an invisible hand, withheld him. When he reached the cabin he shut himself in, and lay on his bunk, forgetting that the place did not belong to him, alive only to the mystery of his trouble, smarting with the shame of the assault upon him. It was dark when he went out to take grass and water the horses. When he returned to the cabin a man was standing at the porch. Stone recognized Holley's shape and then his voice.

"Son you raised the devil to-day," Holley, don't you go back on me!" cried Stone, "I was driven!"

"Not so loud," whispered the rider in return. "I've only a minut. . . . Here's a letter from Lucy. . . . An' son, don't get the idea that I'll go back on you."

True Friends of the Toilers

ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT PLANKS in the Liberal Party's platform of popular benefits is that which represents increased protection for our laborers and workmen.

For many years the complaint has been voiced that in a Country where so many earn their living by the sweat of their brows, no special official provision has been made to watch the interests and to boost the welfare of our laborers and of our workingmen.

This neglect will be remedied by the creation of a Labor Bureau when the Liberal Government is confirmed in power for the next four years. That Labor Bureau will be in charge of a man who is in intimate touch with our workers and knows their needs and their problems. It will constitute an official body to which our workers can look for guidance and for assistance. It will protect Newfoundland-ers in disputes with employers, whether local or foreign. It will make most industrial disputes unnecessary and so will save tens of thousands of dollars in wages for our men.

The pledge of the Liberal Party to pass a Minimum Wage Law will be a measure of active interference in industrial affairs to the great benefit of the workingmen. No longer will it be possible for outside concerns to pay local workmen less wages than they give the imported man. The new law will insist on a liberally adequate rate of payment for Newfoundlanders, no matter where employed. And the new law will remove causes of friction on new enterprises in Newfoundland and causes of complaint as to the inadequate rate paid by firms long established in the country.

The Minimum Wage Law is the Poor Man's protection against industrial profiteers in other countries.

It will function in the same way in Newfoundland.

The Liberal Government will make it the law of this Country.

AT THE CITY HALL

The weekly meeting of the Council was held yesterday afternoon. Mayor Cook presided and Councillors Martin, Outerbridge, Collier, Ryan and Dowden were present.

Messrs. Higgins, Hunt & Emerson, on behalf of Mr. Dewling, forwarded claim for damages sustained to motor car through what they termed the negligence of the driver of the Council's motor truck. This is to be inquired into.

L. E. Emerson, on behalf of the residents of Kichham Place and Lawrence's Lane, asked that water and sewerage be extended to that locality.
The Plumbing Inspector is to visit the various dwellings in the streets mentioned and ascertain whether or not the owners are prepared to install same in the event of the Council undertaking this work.

The Imperial Tobacco Company stated they were desirous of placing a concrete sidewalk and curb in front of their premises, Flavin Street, and they asked if the Council would be prepared to undertake the work on the usual basis, namely the Company paying half the cost. The Council is unable to accede to their request.

In the matter of the Imperial Tobacco Company's application for permission to place advertising signs on shops, etc., in the city limits, it was ordered that permits be issued.

Mr. Walter Gosse called attention to the need of having a light placed on the upper part of Plymouth Road, between Devon Row and Factory Lane. Arrangements have already been made in this respect.

H. Peddigrif's application for concrete curb and gutter in front of his premises, Military Road, was granted, provided he undertakes to pay his portion of cost for said improvement.

Mr. J. Connors applied for the position of Impounder. His communication was ordered filed.

The City Engineer reported that the Long Bridge was in need of repairs. It was decided that the work be done.

PLANS.

The following plans were passed,
subject to the approval of the City Engineer.

Garage: Charles P. Penney, Leslie Street; H. Hutchings, Freshwater Road, provided they install ventilation in same.

The application of E. J. Horwood to erect a garage on Marshall's wharf was deferred, until further particulars as to construction, etc., are obtained, as this place is within the fire zone.

Attention was called to the condition of the retaining wall, Battery Road. The Engineer was instructed to prepare estimate of cost of making repairs.

Matters in connection with that portion of the city known as the "An-pointed out that it would be necessary to have the Sanitary Department call in this section for the collection of garbage, night soil, etc. The matter will be given consideration by the Sanitary Committee and Supervisor.

The need of repairs being made to Springdale Street was also talked over, and the City Engineer instructed to have it attended to.

The Medical Officer of Health reported five new cases of Scarlet Fever and one Diphtheria in the City during the past week.

The reports of the City Engineer and Sanitary Supervisor were read.
With the passing of accounts and granting of requisitions for several Departments, the meeting adjourned.

OBSEQUES OF MISS GERTRUDE PARSONS.

In the General Protestant Cemetery yesterday the mortal remains of Miss Gertrude Parsons were laid reverently to rest, the commitment service being read by the Rev. Hammond Johnson, Pastor of Gower Street Church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Darby.

A brief service was held in the Forest Road residence, after which the cortege proceeded to Gower St.
Church. The casket, covered with choice white flowers and floral emblems, was reverently carried in and placed beneath the rostrum. The east aisle was occupied by the delegates to the W. M. S. Convention who have been in session at George Street Church during the week, and a large concourse of friends filled the body of the church. The service was conducted by the Revs. Hammond Johnson, Dr. Fenwick, Dr. Darby and C. H. Johnson of Cochrane, St.

Miss Elsie Tait was at the organ and a full choir was present. The memorial address was delivered by the Rev.
Hammond Johnson and will not soon be forgotten by his hearers: It was a tender and touching tribute to the memory of the departed, a message of consolation to the sorrowing and a paean of immortality and triumphant hope.

At the close the congregation stood in reverent stillness whilst the strains of the Dead March in Saul permeated from the organ.

CRIPPLES CURED AT SHRINE IN FISDALE.

Man and Woman Are Healed After Kissing Relic of St. Anne.

SOUTHBRIDGE, May 29.—A man and a woman, who were among approximately 2,000 sick and crippled persons that made a pilgrimage from St. Anne's Church, Fiskeale, to the Shrine of St. Anne in a grove nearby, left the shrine completely cured.
The man, Alphonso Notagiaconi, thirty-four years old, of No. 2 Market street, Boston, whose left arm and part of his left side had been paralyzed for ten years, reported that the paralysis had disappeared as soon as he knelt and kissed the relic of St. Anne—a piece of bone presented to the church by Pope Pius years ago.

The woman, who reported she had been cured is Mrs. Theophile Tram-blay of Hamilton street, Southbridge.
She was injured in an accident some time ago and had been lame ever since. When she left the shrine she walked without undue effort or pain.

Pilgrimages to the shrine have been made annually for many years and scores of cures have been reported.

Among the 2,000 who made the latest pilgrimages were cripples from

Liberal Carbonear Will Have Real Representative waged persistent warfare on be-

ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, FRIDAY, MAY 30th., 1924.

GANDER PROPOSITION TO REDOUBLE BENEFITS OF HUMBER INDUSTRY

LAST YEAR the Liberal Party went to the Polls on the merits of the Humber Industry. This year the same progressive party of Newfoundlanders has as a prominent plank in its platform a proposition for the establishment of another great pulp and paper industry in the Gander Valley. The Humber industry is now an assured fact. The Gander industry and all its attendant benefits is equally as certain of accomplishment at the hands of the Liberal Party.

AT LAST ELECTION the Opposition sneered openly at the Humber proposition as a visionary scheme. Later in the campaign they changed their tune and announced themselves as wholeheartedly in favor of the proposition. That was because the idea was a popular one and the Opposition were keen on securing the favor of the people. But, they failed miserably, for the Liberal Party received a mandate from the Electors to put through the legislation necessary to the establishment of the Humber plant. The same Opposition Party is appealing to the people to reinstate them in power now. First when the Liberal Party outlined the Gander proposition during the present Election, the announcement was ridiculed by the Opposition just as the Opposition ridiculed the Humber scheme of last year. But, more recently, the Opposition have decided it is better to boost the proposition than to knock it. So, the Opposition papers now state that any Government will be pleased to encourage this new pulp and paper manufacturing venture.

NOBODY IS INCLINED to pay a great deal of heed to trickster Tories. They shift ground on any public topic faster than the average mind can follow their movements. As far as industrial undertakings are concerned, they have neither the ability nor the interest in the popular welfare that enables a party to initiate and to secure the establishment of such plants as Grand Falls, the Humber and the Gander in the country. They are always found opposing such schemes. They belittled the Grand Falls undertaking. They knocked the Humber proposition and now they are sneering at the Gander scheme. They are foes to popular benefits and to true progress. Their record proves them just that.

Although the Humber undertaking has been in being little more than a year it has already conferred obviously great benefits on our people. Over three thousand Newfoundland workmen are now employed in connection with this industry. From every section of the Country armies of men have gone to the Humber to obtain steady work at good wages. This new avenue of employment has banished most of the unemployment from our land. And when the season's fishery is in full swing there will be no need of a single workman remaining in idleness. Contrast that condition with things as they were in Newfoundland previous to the commencement of work on the Humber. Surely it is obvious that the great industry on the West Coast has proven of the utmost general benefit to the toilers of Newfoundland. Every new avenue of employment spells new progress and greater prosperity for the people.

AND THERE IS another aspect of the Humber industry of the greatest interest and importance to Newfoundlanders. It will be remembered that last year, when legislation was introduced to authorize the purchase of the railroad from the Reids, the Opposition of that day, who are also the Opposition Party of today, denounced the policy of the Liberal Government. They stated that the Liberals were making a present of a huge sum of money to the company and were receiving in return a lot of useless junk that had never paid its way and never would do so. But, up to the end of 1923, the railroad did pay its way and the railroad promises to continue to make such a good record for the future. Now, the establishment of the Humber industry accounts for the improvement already shown in railroad matters and justifies prediction that that improvement will not only be maintained but increased. The Humber industry has provided huge freight and passenger business for the line. That business will continue and the railroad will profit steadily in the future as in the past. Thus, through the industrial policy of Liberalism, not only has unemployment become almost entirely a thing of the past, but the railroad which at one time was losing money at the rate of a million dollars a year, is now paying its way on its own earnings.

OBVIOUSLY, the more of such industries we have in Newfoundland, the better for the Country and its People. Of course, such establishment are, of necessity, limited. But, the business of a wide-awake and progressive Government is to go the limit in these matters and thus to secure to the Country the utmost of popular and economic benefits. With the establishment of the Gander proposition, now before the Liberal Government, still greater opportunities will be created for our workmen. Moreover, as competition increases between companies the workers will benefit through increased wages. The demand for workmen will be greater than the supply and the position of the workmen will thus be greatly improved. Also, the railroad will reap the great benefits of increased traffic of all sorts. As a matter of fact, with the establishment of the industry in the Gander Valley, the railroad instead of having to devise ways and means of securing new business, will be tried to the utmost of its resources to handle all the traffic coming its way. Not only will Newfoundlanders not have to worry about financing the railroad, but the railroad will pay a substantial profit to the public. And, the greater the improvement in railroad conditions, the easier will it be for the Government to make a satisfactory contract with reputable and dependable contractors to take the operation of the road out of our hands.

AS A MATTER OF FACT, the results achieved by a well-rounded industrial policy such as that of the Liberal Party are so nearly miraculous that it is impossible to describe them adequately without risking a charge of exaggeration. Newfoundlanders can today see for themselves some of the results to which we refer and which we have here briefly outlined. And Newfoundlanders have the added consolation of knowing that these results are permanent; the benefits now being enjoyed will continue from one generation to another, indeed, will become greater and more pronounced as time passes.

THE INDUSTRY in the Gander Valley will duplicate on the East Coast the prosperity being experienced in Western sections of Newfoundland. It will afford men from the East Coast steady and profitable employment nearer home. It will boost wages. It will cause the establishment of a busy hive of industry in Bonavista Bay, which will attract to it thousands of men who prefer labor ashore to the business of prosecuting the fisheries of the country.

THE INITIATION, within the next few months, of the Gander Industry will ensure the expenditure of over $6,000,000 on construction work in Newfoundland.

THE EXPENDITURE of this huge sum will ensure employment for all and more than all the workmen available in the Country. Our men will not have to seek jobs; the jobs will have to look for the men.

THE WORK of construction will require the services of 2000 Newfoundlanders.

WHEN COMPLETED, within a couple of years, the plant will require a permanent staff of at least 1500 men.

THE ANNUAL wage bill of the company will average close on two million dollars.

THE OUTPUT of the Gander Mills will be 200 tons per day, or over 60,000 tons per year.

THE WINTER operations of the company will call for the employment of over 1500 woodsmen each season.

THE RAILWAY will benefit immensely by the great freight and passenger traffic created by the Gander operations and its annual revenue from this source will be not less than half a million dollars.

THE ANNUAL export value of the products of the Gander plant will be Five Million Dollars.

THE SURPLUS POWER generated on the Gander River will be available for the exploitation of the mineral areas lying dormant round Green Bay. Hitherto these areas have not been developed because of lack of cheap and abundant power. As soon as this need is met, mineral production and the manufactures associated therewith will create great new industries around our northern bays.

VOTE FOR THE PROGRESSIVE LIBERAL POLICY, ELECTORS, AND ENSURE THE MAINTENANCE AND INCREASE OF THE PROSPERITY OF NEWFOUNDLAND.

Compare the Policies

A COMPARISON of policies as between the Liberals and the Cashinites is an impossibility, because the Opposition have presented no policy to the Country.

It is true that the Opposition continue to parrot and to repeat parrotings about "clean up" and "keep clean." Even that is nothing new. The Liberals began that process last year. The preliminaries have been completed and some cases are already before the Courts. There they have to be left to due process of Law, with which no political Party can interfere, even were it so inclined.

And supplementary investigations were also in process of initiation by the Liberals, when the tricks and intrigues of the present Opposition brought about the dissolution of the House and the General Election.

So Monroe promises to start what has already been initiated. On the other hand the Electors will certainly decide that those who had the courage to inaugurate this policy are more trustworthy in its full accomplishment than those who, so far, have done nothing but hinder and delay the process.

That is all that Monroe offers the country in his manifesto.

As to a constructive policy, he pretends to have none. He promises to see what can be done.

The Liberal Party, on the other hand, offers Newfoundland a careful, sane and statesmanlike policy of general benefit to the Country.

Liberalism stands for tax reduction and has just reduced taxation by $700,000, taken off such necessities of life as Flour, Pork, Molasses, Kerosene Oil and Gasolene.

Liberalism pledges reduction in expenditure, to start at once with a cut of ten per cent. in public estimates.

The Liberal Party pledges the fishermen a bonus to encourage improved cure of fish and to assure higher prices for their catch.

The Liberal Party has a new industrial proposition on the Gander, providing work and wages for two thousand Newfoundlanders.

The Liberal Party undertakes protection for workmen, the assurance of a living wage to workmen and a Labor Bureau to advance their interests generally.

THE LIBERAL PARTY IS PROGRESSIVE. IT OFFERS NEWFOUNDLANDERS A PRACTICABLE AND PROFITABLE WORKING POLICY.

THE CASHINITES HAVE NO POLICY AT ALL.

Don't Want Monroe Bluff

Editor Evening Advocate.
Dear Sir,—Please grant me space in your most highly esteemed paper to make a few remarks about a piece I saw in the Evening Telegram concerning Greenspond. It says about sixteen flags were flying around this place. I guess if poor Sam would take a better look around here he would see more flags than that flying. Poor Sam Hoddinott, he has been calling a long while for Monroe and his candidates in Bonavista Bay. But he will have to call more before he gets them elected. Please Sam take a spell bawling around this place. We are getting fed up now listening to Monroe bluff. Poor Frank Green. He is green by name and green by nature. I wonder does he think we are all as green as he is? No Frank, we are not. We are tired of hearing you. Now please wait until the 2nd of June, you will be shouting a different tune then. You will be going around again with your head down as you did in 1923. No, we don't want any Cashin-Monroe-Crosbie outfit around here. Oh Mr. Monroe, what sort of a job are you going to give poor Sam when you get elected? I guess it will be to barrow fish. Monroe and his colleagues will be left again as they did last spring. Come on Barnes, Forbes and Stick, Come on Stick, stick to it boy, you will get there ahead of Monroe. Poor Lewis Little, he will be little enough when he sees himself at the bottom of the poll on June 2nd, 1924. I think I have said all for this time, so I must close.
I remain, yours truly,
STUMPY.

Tory Opposition Will Not Get Ten Men

Conservative Estimate of Opposition's Chances Gives Them About Eight Seats.

The most reliable news from all the Districts indicates that the Tory Opposition will get probably eight seats in the coming election and certainly not more than ten.

St. John's West will return the three Liberal standard-bearers, Mr. Main will return Hawco and Carter while Smith in Port de Grave will have a larger majority than Mr. Winter had there last year.

Every section of Mr. Grace district concedes victory for Premier Hickman and his colleagues, Carbonear will return Duff with a big majority and Bay de Verde is a sure mark for two Liberals.

Trinity, Bonavista, Twillingate, Fogo and St. Barbe are stronger for the Liberal Party than they were in 1919 while Mr. Downey's election in St. George's is certain. From there to Placentia the Tories will not get a single seat. They have already given up the fight as lost beyond all hope and they are not even sending a newspaper out to the districts.

It is doubtful if ever in the history of the country there has been recorded such an abject defeat as that which will be administered to the Tory party on Monday next.

Once again the Tory tricksters have failed to bamboozle the people and it may be taken for granted now that they will cease their efforts to accomplish the impossible.

Campaign Comments

LAST year Cashin called the Humber Proposition "A visionary scheme." Yesterday The Telegram referred to the Gander Proposition as a "remote project." How the Tories do hate to see new industries opened in this Country. Such industries make the fishermen too independent to suit the Tory book.

John Crosbie is one of the men who is going "to clean up" public life.

A. B. Morine is another political arch-angel.

Peter Cashin, son of Sir Michael, is also going to help purify public life.

William Walsh, too, is sacrificing himself and all his worldly goods on the altar of his country.

So is William "Gaffney" Woodford.

Phil. Moore, the plumber, is also in the arena as a dispenser of pure government.

Cyril J. Fox will not be last amongst the clean-uppers.

Nor will Nixy Vinicombe be slack when he gets a good chance at a "clean-up". The Controller's Department, of course, would be Nix's meat.

Michael Sullivan is another of the Tory Purity League who has in various little ways demonstrated his ability to clean up and keep warm.

Monroe makes a last appeal from Bonavista Bay. "Last appeal" is very appropriate.

And Walter in his "appeal" has little enough consideration for his motley following.

Read what he says: "I make a last appeal to the people of all Districts to see that grafting politicians are shown by the ballot that the country is worthy of Responsible Government, and determined that government of the people shall be by the people, and nothing but Clean Administration will be permitted to exist."

Whom could Mr. Monroe have had in mind when he penned that "last appeal" as he so naively terms it? Surely not Sir John Crosbie of spars fame, of coal graft fame, of coastal contract graft fame, of war patrol graft fame, of liquor control graft fame, of Escasoni fame! Surely!!

Or might it have been the Cashins and their coal dust grab and their liquor control grab and a multitude of other grabs? Perhaps!

Conceivably, it may have been Phil Moore or A. B. Morine! Mebbe!!

Anyway it was a timely appeal, a sensible appeal, the appeal of a man who is intimately acquainted with the country's most notorious grafters.

According to The Telegram Higgins is already under studying Walter Monroe. Billy can make up his mind that he'll never be Premier.

Strange, Monroe in his manifesto's reference to the Prohibition Act failed to mention his boot-legger associates.

FORTUNE HR., May 29.—The school house was packed last night with people to listen to the Liberal candidates, Grimes and Ashbourne, who delivered interesting and informative addresses on the industries of Newfoundland and the political situation in general. The candidates were given a splendid hearing. John Hamilton acted as chairman. Tory supporters admit Liberal vote will be far larger in this place than last year.

PILLEY'S ISLAND, May 29.—Last evening we had with us our Liberal standard bearer, Kenneth M. Brown, his colleagues, Grimes and Ashbourne, having gone to Fortune Harbor to hold a meeting. Mr. Brown was in good form and spoke for one hour on matters political to a packed hall. Labor knows its friends and does not forget.

When Pilley's Island voters at home and those working in the Humber Valley walk into the polling booths at Kitty's Brook and Pilley's Island on Monday next, Brown, Grimes and Ashbourne will win easily.

The West Ablaze!

Never in the political history of St. John's West was such a fight put up as the present by Messrs. Fitzgibbon, Dowden and Duffy and when it is known that at 2.30 this morning they were addressing the youth, beauty and strength of Kilbride, and received a wonderful reception, their friends and supporters and their political opponents too, will agree that they are in the fight to win and they certainly deserve to.

Last night they held no less than three meetings each of which was as great a success as any yet held. The first was held at Petty Harbor North where the voters received them with open arms and added another staunch rung in their ladder of success.

Held Three Meetings.

Last night they held no less than pretty and comfortable R. C. Hall over the stage prominently displayed a banner with the word WELCOME in large letters. The hall was filled and the chair was occupied by the popular Liberal adviser, Mr. Thomas Whitten, who introduced the speakers.

Mr. Fitzgibbon was the first to address the audience and delivered a telling speech reviewing the manifestoes and making an earnest and strong appeal to the voters to cast their votes on Monday. Every word uttered touched a responsive chord in the hearts of the audience and throughout his address he was most enthusiastically applauded.

Given Great Applause.

The large audience present were delighted with Mr. Fitzgibbon and the applause given him showed plainly that he has the majority of the voters at his back. His reference to his opponents showed that he was a gentleman and Petty Harbor, North, was delighted with him for it.

Mr. Duffy was next introduced and delighted those present with his account of the triumphal march of the Liberal Trio in the campaign. He proved absolutely to the satisfaction of all that the Manifesto of Prime Minister Hickman was the best for the country. He knew and the public knew that Mr. Monroe the Opposition leader had been sent to his political death in Bonavista at the instigation of Sir J. C. Crosbie who usurped his place in St. John's West. Petty Harbor knew and admired Mr. Monroe but they detested politically the leader of the West End Tory team because he had not only knifed Mr. Monroe but Mr. Bennett as well. Mr. Duffy has many friends in Petty Harbor North, and his address last night gave them the greatest pleasure.

Makes Splendid Address

Councillor Dowden was then introduced. His reputation as an orator had already reached the North Side and for nearly an hour he held the closest attention of his audience. He demonstrated clearly that with Sir Michael Cashin and Mr. Charles Hunt out of the contest the votes were now in favor of the winning trio. His reference to Mr. Monroe and the shabby manner he had been treated by the clean out crowd stirred every listener, and he received applause far greater than the ordinary politician. Reference was made to the fact that he went there a stranger and although addressing them for the first time he felt that he was among friends, and warm friends, too.

An Outrage Exposed.

He handled the industrial and fishery questions in a manner that pleased everyone, but his treatment of Prohibition and the Liquor question was the hit of the evening. It is an outrage declared Mr. Dowden that the fisherman has to go on his hands and knees and beg for a small quantity of spirits, and pay for it at prohibitive prices while the big man who has friends at court not only can get all he wants for himself and friends without difficulty and in most instances does not have to pay for it.

He cited a case where a lady over 80 years of age had to pay $2.50 to a doctor for two scripts which entitled her to 16 ozs of whiskey, while thousands of dollars worth had been distributed among some politicians who had pulled for nothing. He pledged his hearers that the Prohibition law would be rigidly enforced or it would be changed, and the outburst of applause that greeted this statement showed that he had struck the right chord.

600 Committeemen.

After loud and enthusiastic applause a vote of thanks to the chairman and the singing of the National Anthem, the candidates hurried back to the city and met their committee of six hundred men. The wildest enthusiasm prevailed when they heard of the fine reception accorded Messrs. Fitzgibbon, Dowden and Duffy at Petty Harbor North.

Filled with the winning spirit the candidates proceeded to Kilbride at 1.30 this morning and what is unique in the history of St. John's West and we think the whole Island held a political meeting at 2 o'clock this morning.

The 2 a.m. Meeting.

When the winning trio entered they were beseeched by the good ladies of that place who had supper prepared for them, although a dance was in progress, so eager were the dancers to hear the Liberal standard bearers that they discontinued the programme and called on the candidates.

The floor manager, Mr. Denmore, acted as chairman and the genuineness of the reception showed clearly how Kilbride feels.

Mr. Fitzgibbon spread before the audience the two manifestoes; he severely scored the Tories for many sins of omission and commission and covered the Model Farm in a manner that delighted the farmers. It was a scandal that high-bred stock should be scrapped and cattle worth hundreds, nay, thousands of dollars for breeding purposes should be given away to butchers for a mere pittance. It was a dark spot in the life of our farmers and the Tories were alone responsible for it.

Should Not Import.

Mr. Duffy also made a clever speech and assured the men of Kilbride that he and his colleagues had pledged themselves to assist to the fullest all agricultural matters. He deprecated the fact that thousands of dollars were sent annually to Prince Edward Island and America for vegetables when the money should be kept at home.

Mr. Dowden was very happy in his remarks. At such a late hour for it was nearly 3 a.m., he did not intend to make a political speech, but he paid a glowing tribute to the young ladies and their stalwart companions. He had come among them a stranger but he felt that he would leave them a warm friend. His address was punctuated with rounds of applause. He proved to them that the Liberal Party would be winners on Monday next, and St. John's West did not want to be out in the cold as St. John's East was for many years.

Had to Speak Again

So delighted was the audience with the winning Trio that they would not be satisfied until Mr. Fitzgibbon delivered a second address.

At 3 o'clock, with enthusiastic cheers, Messrs. Fitzgibbon, Dowden and Duffy left for the city. This evening at 8.45 the winning Trio will hold their big meeting in the Maestic Theatre when the public of St. John's will have the opportunity of hearing them. Make no mistake, Fitzgibbon, Dowden and Duffy are winners.

NOTES FROM HILLVIEW

Hillview, T. B., May 24, 1924.

(Editor Evening Advocate.)

Dear Sir,—Kindly allow me space in your esteemed paper to relate a picnic trip taken to Queen's Cove on Wednesday evening, May 21st.

The pleasure seekers were the following: Mrs. W., Miss Annie Denison, Miss M. Avery, Miss L. Brown (the teacher), Mr. Samuel Caurehl, friend of the ladies, who had been working down to Deer Lake during the winter and who had come home for a week's vacation, was the engineer.

The ladies spent a very enjoyable evening at Queen's Cove, visiting friends and left for home again about 9 p. m. Just after leaving, the engine began to behave in a very disagreeable way and in spite of the engineer's efforts all hope of remedying the engine trouble had to be given up. At last darkness overtook them.

and the boat was gradually driving down the Arm; to row the boat to land was impossible as no preparations had been made for this purpose.

What was to be done? After a great deal of shouting it was thought that a motor boat could be heard in the distance. Soon they had no reason to doubt for the boat could plainly be heard coming to the rescue, but the difficulty now was, how the boat would find them, as the lost party had not even a light on board.

But Miss Annie Benson who was over on the alert to help the engineer thought of a plan, dipping her handkerchief in the salt water, and getting a box of matches, she got in the cabin of the boat and lit matches in the window (being very careful to put the burnt matches in her wet handkerchief). This, however, the rescuers saw.

After a while the boat "Advocate" with Mr. Edmund Benson, Mr. W. J. Frost and Mr. Andrew Green on board arrived upon the scene. Soon a line was thrown by the rescuers, which was quickly caught by the engineer.

About 11 p.m. the ladies were gladly received by their relatives and friends, feeling not much the worse after their night's experience.

A COMPARISON OF RECORDS

THE TORIES were in power during ten years when money flourished like water, when capital was going a-begging for safe investment. Yet when the Tories went out of power, this Country stood exactly where it did, industrially, when Sir Robert Bond relinquished the reins of office after the Grand Falls project was set on foot.

During these whole ten years, a period in which the people paid $80,000,000 in taxes, not a sod was turned, not a stone laid for the foundation of a single industry.

During the time—less than five years—that the Liberal Government was in power, the Humber project was set going and today there are four thousand men getting work in their own Country which they would not be getting but for the Humber Proposition.

Before the Liberal Party is back in power again a year with a new mandate from the people, another industrial milepost will have been passed. The Gander Project will have been inaugurated and another 2,000 men will be getting work in their own Newfoundland which they could not get but for the Gander Project.

The Tory idea of such undertakings as the Grand Falls mills is summed up in the words of The Daily News—"Selling the Country to the Harmsworths."

The Tory idea of such projects as the Humber is summed up again in the words of Sir Michael Cashin—"A visionary scheme."

Foreign Despatches

LONDON, May 29.—That the Government's fate was in the balance in to-night's debate in the Commons, with the issue doubtful, was admitted by the Daily Herald, Labor's organ, while all political writers concur in the declaration that the administration will find itself in a tighter corner than ever before, and can in any case expect only a small majority. The debate centres around a motion by Conservatives to reduce the salary of Tom Shaw, Minister of Labor, this being a technical way of disapproving the Government's policy toward relieving unemployment. A similar motion was talked out in the House a week ago, the Government and supporters preventing closure by the majority of thirty-four. Everything apparently hinges upon the advice Asquith gives his followers at to-day's Liberal caucus, and several experts believe this advice will favor the Government.

LONDON, May 29.—Prime Minister MacDonald in a speech before the Commons to-day clearly stated that if the Government was defeated on the motion to reduce the salary of Minister of Law Shaw, it would go at once to the country.

LONDON, May 29.—The British Government is unprepared to make any proposal at present towards the extension of Home Rule in India, it was announced by J. R. Clynes, Deputy Minister, in the House of Commons, in answering a question in the House this afternoon.

LONDON, May 29.—The prolonged dispute over the question of the coal miners' wages was definitely settled today, when a full conference of the coal miners delegates voted 473 to 311 to accept the terms of the agreement reached by the miners federation representatives with the owners on May 15.

ROME, May 29.—Pope Pius to-day issued a Bull proclaiming 1925 a holy year. Besides granting the usual indulgences for the jubilee, the Pope prays for the real pacification of the world, for reunion of the churches dissenting from the church of Rome, and for the systematization of the edifices of Palestine according to Catholic rites.

PARIS, May 29.—The crack French four year old, was beaten at Longchamps race track this afternoon on his first appearance since his defeat by Sir Galahad last week. Count De La Cineras Remonte was first and Epinard second.

LONDON, May 29.—King Ferdinand of Rumania is reported by the Bucharest correspondent of the Daily Express to have narrowly escaped death during a long series of explosions which occurred in the central ammunition depot, two miles west of the Rumanian capital, yesterday. The King approached so near the arsenal that General Maderesco was obliged to drag him away and a shell fell and exploded on the spot where he had been standing. It is believed several were killed in the explosion and fire which followed.

HARODATE, Japan, May 29.—The United States destroyer, John Paul Jones, left here to-day for Hong Kong with Stuart McLaren's spare airplane, to substitute for the one destroyed in India, breaking his world encircling attempt. Another destroyer will rush the plane from Hong Kong to India and it is hoped that the flight may be resumed.

KURUMAN, Bechuanaland, May 29.—While a review of military commands was in progress here yesterday a bomb fell accidentally from a military demonstrating airplane into a crowd of spectators, killing six persons outright and injuring nineteen.

LONDON, May 29.—A statement made in the House of Commons by Charles Ammon, Parliamentary Secretary of the Admiralty, relative to a question whether the Admiralty yacht Enchantress was to be put in commission again in ten days, to allow the Board of Admiralty officially to attend the review of the fleet in July, and in inspect the ships, led to a torrent of questions being asked. George Lansbury, Labor member, wanted to know why the Labor Government required a yacht when the Coalition Government had laid it up. Secretary Ammon required the yacht and that the cost of recommissioning would be $7000.00.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—David C. Kerr, United States Vice Consul at Vancouver, was arrested here to-day on a charge of having accepted bribes to influence his decisions on questions relating to the passage of aliens across the Canadian border.

ROBINSON RAVES AGAIN

The News Editor is raving again this morning. He wants "the status from the country's escutcheon removed" by Messrs. Crosbie, Cashin, Peter, Phil Moore, Wm. J. Walsh, Wm. Woodford, all of the order of clean uppers. Dr. Robinson says that Walter S. Monroe is backed by these men who are pledged to him without reservation and without inducement of any kind "to clean up." Why, the News need not tell the public that. These gentlemen will be only too delighted if given an opportunity to clean out the chest within 48 hours if the people were foolish enough to permit them to do so. A section of them made a little raid on coal quite recently. After Monday next, to Dr. Robinson will be assigned the task of inducing these hanger-down politicians to go to work and try to earn a living, they have been long enough sponging off the taxpayers of this country.

Hon. J. F. Downey's Election Assured

The Hon. J. F. Downey, Minister of Agriculture and Mines wires friends in this city to-day, that the campaign in St. George's is practically over, and that he will duplicate his victory of year ago in that District. His opponent is trading upon a slight acquaintance formed while he lived at Bay of Islands for a couple of years. His fitness, however, to represent the District at this time in view of the Humber Development, does not appeal to the electorate. Besides St. George's will run no chance of losing Executive Representation and the Department which suits a farming and industrial people.

Downey a sure winner in St. George's.

A ROAST FOR MR. BILLY WALSH

May 29, 24.

Dear Sir,—As I was double blessed to-day in getting a letter and a manifesto from the Lazy Cover up Party, I ask you to give me a short space in THE ADVOCATE, for to say a few words concerning it.

In the first place, I wish to tell those that sent that letter that I know how to vote without their advice so long as they were too cowardly to have a meeting in this place they need not to take the trouble to send a letter to buy my vote. What ever did the Tory Government ever do except twiddle their fingers. Walsh was in on the Government side and what did he do for Placentia Bay; he never as much as give Odein Island communication with the outside world, and then talk about all he is going to do. When you were in was the time to do something and not send around letters about what you would do.

Last spring the Tory party sent around papers asking the voter of this district to vote for them to destroy the menace of Coakerism and when Walsh was in the House of Assembly he said despite mistakes Sir Wm. Coaker has done an immense amount of good. Blind man's bluff won't work on everybody. I for one knows who is who, then you will talk about wasting money. How much did your party waste on the Fortune Bay Branch Railway and the squaw lobster business and now you will talk about getting a dollar back for every dollar spent. How many dollars did you get back on them two jobs?

I see on the manifesto about the bounty on fish and as they didn't know the way to pay it out. Do it this way, have it to pay back old debts, that is when they gets the chance that won't be this time. I must say it is a great manifesto to go to the country with. I would make a better one with my two eyes shut. We don't want manifestos of destruction, but of construction, such as the Liberal one, neither do we want more taxes to pay, but taken of as the Liberal Government did this spring.

After the Liberal Government starting the Humber last spring and taking off $700,000 duty, is Placentia going to make the same mistake as she has done since 1908, follow me this way: Bindon X, Ryan X, Murphy X.

Two Friends Write From Northern Outport

Woodstock, April 26th, 1924.
Editor Evening Advocate.

Dear Sir,—Will you please allow us space in your much read paper, the Advocate, to make a few remarks concerning the past winter spent in Pacquet and the present time.

Well, this hasn't been such a bad winter after all, although many of our friends have been absent from us for about six months. The weather here this winter cannot be complained of as other years. There hasn't been any snow or frost with regards to complaining of, just enough to make the atmosphere give good health to all around. We that are writing this have been in perfect health all winter, so we thought it a splendid idea to write a few things to let others know that Pacquet is not so bad as it looks, although we have only been a few in number, yet God has blessed us and we have indeed something to be thankful for to see that there has been so many around us being taken away, yet we are spared. There were some where about forty-nine families left this place last fall and went to White Bay, and quite a few are passed away to the great beyond, whom we shall never see on earth again, but we are looking forward to the time when we shall meet on the banks of the river, where all separations shall be over; where we shall spend a never ending eternity; where we shall see the King in His beauty, and the land that lies afar off.

Again we wish to tell you that we haven't had the opportunity of hearing our pastor preach, for about four months, he has been away, but we are expecting his arrival soon, and we trust that all will show their best respect in welcoming him back, although he has been absent so long, yet we are glad to say that we have had services occasionally, although we were only a few in number, God has blessed us. He has promised "Where there are two or three gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst and that to bless." I think I'll close with those few words; Psalm 19:19, "Let the words of my mouth and

Too Much Crime and Immorality In Films. Mothers' Congress Told

ST. PAUL, May 6.—There is too much portrayal of crime, immorality and brutality in the movies, delegates to the convention of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers' Association were told to-day.

Mrs. Charles E. Merriam of Chicago, Chairman of the Better Films Committee, led a round-table discussion that brought out unanimous disapproval of the filming of salacious books—"books the average boy and girl otherwise never would have heard about," one speaker said.

"We have protested, but in vain," Mrs. Merriam said. "Even to-day the industry is filming two more vile books, one to be released this week. The producer of this film announced that this week—which we are devoting to child welfare—is to be nationally advertised by him as 'Love Week'."

"The industry tells us we should not mention these bad films—that we should spend our time advertising and praising their good films. You might as well say that the community should pay no attention to its criminals and spend its time praising the good citizens."

"The arguments of the producers that unless they film this kind of picture they will have to go out of business—that good pictures do not pay—are proved erroneous by their own figures."

"Figures issued from Hollywood last summer show the films that paid best in July were the most wholesome ones ever made."

The meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, oh Lord my strength and my redeemer. TWO FRIENDS.

CARTER AND HAWCO

(Editor Evening Advocate.)
Dear Sir—Please allow me space in your highly esteemed paper The Advocate, to make a few remarks on the men that are trying to bluff the people with talk of a "clean government." Woodford was here a few days ago and said the new station getting built at Manuels was only a bluff, but Mr. Editor, why didn't Mr. Woodford start some bluff during his term of office? I saw by The Telegram about Woodford's meeting held at Chamberlains. But it's a lie. Only a few Tory heelers from Manuels and some little boys which did the cheering. The south shore says away with Woodford and the Tory bunch. Come on boys, don't let Woodford bluff you. Hawco will head the poll with Carter close behind. Woodford's day is done. All the shore is going to vote the straight ticket for the Liberal candidates. Hawco and Carter—LIBERAL.
